

The ALEUTIAN CURRENT

President's Report

by Thomas Mack

“To always learn and maintain a balance” is a personal value near and dear to my heart. For thousands of years, our people have used many forms of communication to understand each other and the natural world around us. The more we communicate the more we learn – and the stronger our TAC family becomes.

Spending one-on-one time with shareholders and descendants is something I love to do. This Spring I was honored to host the annual Village Corporation President's Roundtable. Management, staff and board members representing 11 of our 13 village corporations came together to share the latest from their organizations and villages so we could learn and work together more effectively for the betterment of our shareholders. Thank you to those village corporations who were represented - we at the Aleut Corporation greatly value your input and ideas.

I would like to extend a special ‘thank you’ to Josephine Shangin and Crystal Dushkin who co-facilitated the Aleut Villages Conference and attended the Roundtable. They did a great job last year and I look forward to working with them on this year's conferences taking place in Anchorage on October 13 and 14 at the Egan Convention Center. They are interested in hearing from shareholders and descendants, so please reach out to them through the “Aleut Villages Conference” Facebook page or you can contact the Aleut Corporation office for their contact information.

I look forward to seeing you at one of the Shareholder informational meetings.

Nothing beats face-to-face visits with Shareholders and descendants. That is why village visits are one of the highlights for me every year. These are times to share with shareholders and descendants who live in the region and provide updates about their corporation. It is also a great opportunity for you to ask questions, share ideas and give feedback. This year we are scheduling village visits for early August. Weather permitting, I plan on visiting each community.

If you live in the region, I look forward to seeing you at one of the Shareholder informational meetings. We will be formalizing the schedule soon and letting each community know of the date and time of the meetings.

Shareholders and Descendants make up the foundation and heart of the Aleut Corporation. Every year the Shareholder Department looks for new, innovative ways to enhance the shareholder experience. These projects include developing a Shareholder portal so Shareholders can manage their own affairs; revamping
